

A NOTE FROM ARTISTIC DIRECTOR
Juliana Witt

I am very excited to welcome you to the fourth season of Arts at Nativity! As the new artistic director, I look forward to continuing and developing this incredible arts series that Ilona Kubiacyk-Adler began. This season, we have something for everyone, as each concert is a unique experience, featuring outstanding locally based musicians in a conversational space to eat, drink and get to know the artists personally during and after each concert. From classical chamber music to Christmas choir to Burkina drumming to Irish and jazz, you will certainly find a variety of intimate experiences that you can't find elsewhere.

On October 14th, we will kick off the season with a free, donation-based interactive performance by The Rice Brothers, an incredible piano/cello duo who made their Carnegie debut in 2014. This event is intended to invite our Scottsdale Community families to have a Sunday of fun and art-making together, inspired by this world-class duo!

The McLin/Campbell performance is one that you will not want to miss and a majestic Christmas concert in December will “sing in” the holiday season, featuring the Arizona Christian University Firestorm Chorale under the direction of Dr. Kira Rugen. In the Spring, I am particularly excited about our February 2nd evening of chamber music where you, the audience, will get to choose from a “menu” to create the program that you want to hear!

Invite your friends and neighbors to our free donation-based concerts: The Rice Brothers' Interactive performance, our Veteran's Day Concert in November and also the commemoration of Martin Luther King Jr.'s life in January.

Support your local artists in the Scottsdale community by joining us this season! We believe that art is powerful and can change the world as it moves and motivates us. I hope you will join us in that pursuit.

SUN | OCT 14 | 1 PM
THE RICE BROTHERS

The Rice Brothers will kick off our season with a varietal program in a family-friendly, interactive concert. After debuting at Carnegie Hall in 2014, they have continued to bring their charisma to stages all over the world. Bring your family and friends for a day of inspiring art and fun! Workshop at 12:30, Concert at 1:00.

SUN | OCT 28 | 2 PM
MCLIN AND CAMPBELL

Music for Two with October Brews will be presented by Drs. Katherine McLin and Andrew Campbell, “a superb husband/wife team who bring great excitement and artistry to their performances of the violin and piano literature.” The duo holds faculty residences at ASU and you’ll love having a beverage with them!

SUN | NOV 11 | 2 PM
VETERANS DAY CONCERT

Featuring Apollo High School’s Choir under the direction of Michael Frongillo, this program entitled, “Commemoration and Honor,” pays tribute to those who have served. Veterans will read beautiful poems while voices and instruments provide the music for this special offering. Join us! Free admission.

SUN | DEC 9 | 3 PM
A CHRISTMAS CHOIR CELEBRATION

This majestic, thrilling Christmas Concert will “sing in” the holiday season with a mass choir singing Messiah selections and other favorites. Features Arizona Christian University’s Firestorm Chorale under the direction of Dr. Kira Rugen and other local choirs.

MON | JAN 21 | 7 PM
THE MLK LEGACY

A birthday celebration of the chief spokesman for the Civil Rights Movement, Martin Luther King Jr., with traditional gospel music repertoire, script and media. Led by the Nativity Music Ministry and local jazz musicians, you’ll experience an evening filled with strong emotion. Free admission.

SAT | FEB 2 | 7 PM
THE SALONNIÈRES TRIO

A La Carte is a unique experience, where the audience chooses the program from a “menu” of genres and styles. In a revival of the European salon tradition, this group of soprano Jamie Kay Alston, violinist Jennifer Rhodes, and pianist Dr. Karali Hunter embraces classical repertoire, folk, musical theater, and sacred traditions.

SUN | FEB 24 | 2 PM
BURKINA STRINGS, DESERT DRUMS

Arouna Diarra, a 16th-generation African drummer and instrument maker, along with local percussionist Dr. Sonja Branch will perform a narrative program, featuring music beyond Western traditions.

SUN | MAR 10 | 2 PM
THE SPIRITED LADS

The Spirited Lads play tunes that you can’t resist singing along with; before you know it, you are clapping your hands and stomping your feet to this infectious Irish Music. The Lads delight both new and seasoned fans of the great Irish Music tradition.

FRI | APR 5 | 7 PM
HOLLY PYLE & FRIENDS

Phoenix native Holly Pyle is buzzing both the valley and the US with her latest concoction of disparate music influences. Known as a vocalist with an “ability to inhabit nearly any style of music,” Holly and friends will bring us an evening of best-loved tunes from the traditional jazz heritage.

Unless otherwise noted, tickets are $20 general admission, $5 students and children 12 and up.
